CHAMP’s SPRING 2012 EVENTS

January 31, 2012, noon, Freeman Fellows Building
Hsieh ChungHeng, Visiting Freeman Fellow, Taiwan
LECTURE: “The challenges of cultural landscape for preservation in Taiwan”

March 12, 6 p.m., 302 Architecture Building
Prita Meier, Assistant Professor of Art History, Wayne State University

March 14, 6 pm, 302 Architecture Building
Samantha Noel, Moreau Postdoctoral Fellow, Notre Dame University
LECTURE: “From Exotic to Afro-Modern: Traversing Caribbean Art and Visual Culture”

April 2, 6 p.m., 302 Architecture Building
Laura de Becker, Sainsbury Research Unit, University of East Anglia, UK
LECTURE: “Representations of the 1994 Genocide in Rwanda’s National Museums and Memorials”

April 4, 11 a.m., Illini Union room 314
Dr. Wayne Clough, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution
LECTURE

April 4, 6 p.m., 302 Architecture Building
Bárbaro Martínez-Ruiz, Assistant Professor of Art History, Stanford University
LECTURE: “Rupestrian Art and Migration in Central Africa”

April 16, 7:30 p.m., Levis Faculty Center
Yael Zerubavel, Professor of Jewish Studies and History, Rutgers University
LECTURE: “The Bible, the Lure of Antiquity and Israeli Popular Culture”

May 14, noon, 219 Davenport Hall
Mike Robinson, Director of Ironbridge Institute and Chair of Cultural Heritage, University of Birmingham, England
LECTURE: “Tourists, Heritage and the Emotions”

Wednesday, May 30, Rare Book and Manuscript Library, Room 346
Barbara Ford, Director of the Mortenson Center for International Library Programs & Member, U.S. National Commission for UNESCO
LECTURE: “UNESCO, Libraries, and Inclusive Knowledge Societies”